Investment Strategy
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Underlying Fund will invest at least 70% of its net asset value in debt securities issued by Asian issuers and in derivatives on Asian interest rates and currencies, which debt securities and derivatives are listed or traded on Regulated Markets. • The Underlying Fund invests primarily in, inter alia (i) debt securities issued or guaranteed by national governments located in Asian countries; (ii) corporate debt securities issued by Asian companies; (iii) securitised participation in loans; (iv) structured notes whose underlying exposure may be to fixed income securities; (v) mortgaged-backed and asset-backed securities that are structured as debt securities; (vi) derivatives on Asian interest rates and Asian bonds concluded with highly rated Asian or global credit institutions; and (vii) Asian currencies and derivatives on those currencies. • The Underlying Fund invests in Investment Grade, below Investment Grade and unrated debt securities; however, the Underlying Fund will only purchase debt securities that are rated at least B- by S&P or its equivalent by another NRSRO or, if unrated, deemed to be of comparable quality by the Investment Manager and Sub-Investment Managers (collectively, "Western Asset"). • The Underlying Fund may invest in certain types of derivatives for efficient portfolio management purposes and/or investment purposes. • The Underlying Fund may be leveraged as a result of investment in derivatives. However, the Underlying Fund will not be leveraged in excess of 100% of its net asset value. The Underlying Fund will not take direct short positions on individual securities. • The Underlying Fund may have exposure to Reverse Repurchase Agreements for efficient portfolio management purposes. The Underlying Fund's maximum notional exposure to total return swaps and SFTs is 100% of its net asset value (expected exposure in the range of 0% to 20% of its net asset value). • Western Asset expects to invest the Underlying Fund's portfolio in debt securities of issuers located in several different Asian countries, but may, when opportunities arise to further the Underlying Fund's investment objective, invest in securities of issuers located in a relatively small number of Asian countries. Western Asset may also invest in any number of issuers, or may at times concentrate its assets in the securities of a small number of issuers. • Western Asset may take full advantage of the entire range of maturities and durations when purchasing debt securities for the Underlying Fund, and may adjust the average duration, depending on their assessment of the relative yields of securities of different maturities and durations and their expectations of future changes in interest rates. • The Underlying Fund's benchmark index is the Markit iBoxx Asian Local Bond Index (the "Benchmark"). The Underlying Fund is actively managed, and the Investment Manager is not constrained by the Benchmark. The Investment Manager has discretion in selecting investments within the Underlying Fund's objective and investment policies. The Benchmark is used for performance comparison purposes and by the Investment Manager in measuring and managing investment risk. The Underlying Fund's investments will include components of the Benchmark, although the weightings of the Underlying Fund's holdings may differ materially from those of the Benchmark and will normally include instruments not included in the Benchmark. The Investment Manager may overweight such investments in the Benchmark and include other non-Benchmark instruments which it considers to offer more attractive risk/reward characteristics and may underweight or not invest at all in other Benchmark investments which the Investment Manager considers less attractive. The Benchmark is also relevant in defining the extent of permissible investments in certain sovereign issuers. • Due to the investment policies of the Underlying Fund, the Underlying Fund may have a particularly volatile performance. 	Refer to the "Investment Objectives and Policies and Product Suitability" section in Paragraph 5.1 of the Underlying Fund's Prospectus for further information on investment strategy of the sub-fund.
